

I do not want the No Call List weakened. I work hard all day and don't want to come home to several phone calls from people wanting to sell me something that I don't want. I consider telemarketing to be an invasion of privacy. The phone is in my home and I did not invite these people in, just because I have a telephone number it doesn't mean anyone can use it.